What we were learning before half term	What we are learning next week	Notices
Maths: we were revising efficient methods to help us with addition and subtraction Literacy: we interviewed each other about our inventions and wrote up our interviews as reports Science: We were looking at what made us alive and then classified items into living, once alive, never alive. History: We finished our work on the first flights by looking at the chronology of events and trying to put the Wright brothers, Amelia Earhart and Neil Armstrong onto a timeline	Maths: we will be revisiting repeated addition, multiplication statements and division over the next two weeks Literacy: We will be looking at our non-fiction book "A planet full of plastic and how you can help". This text, designed for key stage 1, links to our geography and science work. Science: We are starting a unit on habitats, starting with food chains and classifying carnivores/omnivores/plant eaters. We will also we doing our half-termly observation walk around the grounds to see what has or hasn't changed Geography: We will be introducing our new topic where we will look at the Arctic environment more in depth.	Reminders Key stage 1 SATS There have been some enquiries about which dates the Kingfishers will sit their SATS. We can run the assessments at any point in May. We can spread the papers out over the month if we wish or sit them all in a week. To that end, we decide nearer the time based on how the class are and what else is happening. I'll give you more details nearer the time. PE Please make sure your child's PE kit is always in school. PE is taught twice a week; either Monday & Tuesday or Tuesday & Wednesday. Spelling test every Friday. Please make sure reading records stay in bags so the children have their log in details to hand for purple mash/times too/accelerated reader etc And don't forget! Dojo's on a Wednesday for children who are reading regularly!
