World Book Day Friday 8th March 2024 It was lovely to see so many wonderful costumes. The day was a true celebration of sharing books, which was enjoyed by the children and the staff. The children are bringing home their world book day books and a book from the book swap library. Once they have enjoyed their book swap book, they can be returned to the book swap library on the playground and swap it for a new one. Well done to everyone who entered the rock competition and a big well done to our winners.
