Norfolk County Music Festival On Thursday the children in Key Stage 2 had the opportunity to take part in the Norfolk County Music Festival at the Kings Centre. As well as performing, we watched a number of other schools perform their chosen songs which was a great experience! It was really interesting to see schools of varying sizes perform. We were last up and the whole of Key Stage 2 performed 'How Do We Know It Won't Eat Us' from There's A Dinosaur In The Playground and 'Under The Sea' from The Little Mermaid. The choir then performed 'Shoshone Love Song' by Roger Emerson and 'Old Joe Has Gone Fishing' from the opera Peter Grimes by Benjamin Britten.

I would like to say an absolutely tremendous well done to all of the children, they sang absolutely beautifully! They have all practised incredibly hard in both music lessons and choir and it really showed. The comments we got from the adjudicator included, 'beautiful atmosphere created', 'sang with so much enjoyment' and 'well controlled, BRAVO!'. The children should all be so incredibly proud of themselves!
