Sports Day Friday 13th June. Parents are invited to join their children on the school field at midday for a picnic lunch (weather permitting!) Please bring blankets if you have them.

There will be no hot dinners but Ayesha will supply packed lunches to children who want them. These will need to be pre-ordered as normal.

At 1pm, the races will begin! Classes will sit on one side of the field and families on the other. Parents will be encouraged to take part in the parent races so wear trainers!

The house winner will be announced at the end of the afternoon and parents will be directed to the front playground where they can wait for the children to be dismissed as usual.

For security, we will be asking parents to sign in. In the event of late arrivals, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to let you in as most adults will be involved with the event.
