Federation Games The results of the Key Stage 2 Federation Games are in!

We had a lovely morning at Barford in the sunshine. We tried eight new activities to try and challenge the children. A lot of certificates were given out for resilience and collaboration and an awful lot of additional mentions were also made by staff who praised the atmosphere and teamwork between Barford and Bawburgh.
The Yellow Hose started today as the defending champions, but the trophy this year went to the Red House with second place going to Blue. Congratulations to everyone for taking part and trying their best.

Congratulations Many congratulations to Asta, Erin, Hughie and Phoebe who are our new Head Pupils. We are excited to see what they will achieve.

Forest School Stay and Play Please see attached poster regarding our new Play and Stay Forest School sessions.
